

Court Decision:

Plaintiff: Mishshi Oreshnikov

t.me/asmodaus_om

Defendant: Rafis Kashapov

Witness: Ilshat Sharafullin

t.me/Ilshat_100575

Arbitration Court: “Solomon’s Masks”

t.me/solomonsmask

On April 21, 2026, a hearing was held in the arbitration court “Solomon’s Masks,” where a claim for defamation was considered.

Essence of the claim:

The Ombudsman of the blockchain state of Chuvashia–Volga Bulgaria, Mishshi Oreshnikov, was publicly accused by Rafis Kashapov of collaborating with the FSB. Rafis Kashapov, a native of the Republic of Tatarstan, raised in the village of Tumutuk, Aksubaevsky District, serves as the Prime Minister of the “Government of Tatarstan in Exite.”

Plaintiff’s demands:

Apology from the defendant. Rafis Kashapov should post an apology on his social networks for calling Mishshi Oreshnikov an FSB agent. Also, the defendant should be ordered to pay moral damages in the amount of 20,000,000 BulCoin (Blc) + 8,000,000 (Blc) court costs.

Evidence in the case:

From the Plaintiff:

The plaintiff and the witness provided the court with the original audio recording containing the defendant’s accusations that the plaintiff is an FSB agent;

The plaintiff is one of the leaders of the “Coalition of Indigenous Peoples,” which is engaged in active informational and physical resistance against the terrorist state—the Russian Federation. The Russian Federation is recognized by the majority of countries in the world as a terrorist state, as also stated in Article 17 of CHAPEK (Chuvash–Volga Bulgarian National Council, the highest national representative body of the Chuvash-Bulgarian people).

From the Defendant:

The defendant provided no evidence in his defense or in support of his statements against the plaintiff. The defendant was duly notified by the court of this claim.

A “letter of reconciliation” was sent to the defendant on behalf of the court. The defendant reviewed the letter and refused to take steps toward reconciliation, and also refused to participate in the hearing on April 21, 2026, at 19:-- CET. The reconciliation letter and the response from Rafis Kashapov will be stored in the ATS blockchain archive.

Court Decision:

The court made an objective decision, based on the researched materials and the interview of the participants in the process, taking into account the factual evidence from both sides, as well as taking into account the fact that the defendant's statements are slander and have had a very negative impact on the plaintiff's reputation, since such a reputation has turned away allies, including from Tatarstan. The slander has harmed Misha personally and the activities of the Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria movement and the decolonial movement of the Russian Federation as a whole. The court agrees with Misha Oreshnikov's demands to Rafis Kashapov in full, namely that the defendant must post an apology and refute his previous statements towards the plaintiff, pay the plaintiff moral damages in the amount of 20,000,000 (Blc) and compensate for court costs in the amount of 8,000,000 (Blc).

The court recognizes Rafis Kashapov as a defamer until the plaintiff's demands are met.